Roman Britain

Watch the video.

Match the names with definitions:

a	Britannia	1	the Roman name for Bath
b	Hadrian	2	some Roman letters
c	Hadrian's Wall	3	the Roman name for Britain
d	the Vindolanda Tablets	4	a Roman ruler
e	Aquae Sulis	5	a popular place for Romans
f	the Roman Baths	6	a Roman wall

Do the sentences describe Hadrian's Wall or the Roman Baths?

1 It's the north of England.
2 It's in the south-west of England.
3 The Romans constructed it in a village.
4 The Romans finished it in six years.
5 The Romans named it after a Roman ruler.
6 The Romans liked talking to their friends there.
7 Archaeologists discovered the Vindolanda Tablets nearby.
8 A lot of people from all around the country visited it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the correct words.

1 The Celts were / weren't powerful in Britain before the Romans invaded.
2 The Romans started / finished Hadrian's Wall in 122 AD.
3 Hadrian's Wall was / wasn't 170 kilometres long.
4 The Vindolanda Tablets were / weren't near Hadrian's Wall.
5 Bath was / wasn't a big city when the Romans arrived.
6 The water in Baths is / isn't about 55 degrees Celsius.
7 The Romans used / didn't use the Roman Baths fro meeting friends.
8 People stopped / didn't stop using the Roman Baths when the Romans left Britain.

Complete the summary.

The Romans invaded Britain about _____ years ago. They called the country _____ and constructed many buildings, roads and cities there. They started _____ in 122 AD and finished it six years later. Archaeologists discovered the _____ near the wall. The Romans constructed the _____ in the city of Bath, which they called _____. They used the baths for washing, but also talked to their _____ there. The Romans stayed in Britain for about _____ years.

LIVEWORKSHEETS