INDEFINITE PRONOUNS REVISION

1. Circle the correct answer.

1 Where are my glasses? I can't see them anywhere / nowhere.

2 There's someone / anyone downstairs. I can hear a voice.

3 I love holidays in old cities. There's somewhere / everywhere different to go every day.

4 Everybody's busy. There isn't everyone / anyone to talk to.

5 There's no food left. You've eaten something / everything.

6 There's no water and no juice. There's nothing / anything to drink!

7 Sometimes I get bored at the seaside. If it rains, there isn't everything / anything to do.

8 I've lost my dictionary! I've looked somewhere / everywhere but I can't find it.

2. Correct the mistakes

a. I'm hungry. I need anything to eat. _____

b. No one enjoyed the party, it was fantastic! _____

c. There isn't nowhere to go, this town is really boring! _____

d. Listen! There is somewhere at the door. _____

e. This is a secret. You can tell someone. _____

f. I study a lot, and I get good marks in everybody. _____

3. Read this text and then, write true or false in the sentences.

England in 1665

'I'm going to tell you something about life in England in 1665. Life was hard then. Some people in some places were rich but there were lots of very poor people everywhere.

The worst thing was the dirt – you couldn't get away from it anywhere, and there were rats everywhere. Everybody was afraid of getting ill. There wasn't anything you could do to get better if you got ill, and because there weren't enough doctors, there was no one to help you.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

INDEFINITE PRONOUNS REVISION

Many people died, but in 1666 something happened to change the situation – there was an enormous fire in London and lots of the rats, which carry illness, were killed. After that, fewer people died.'

a. Everybody was rich in England _____

b. There were lots of poor people everywhere. _____

c. There wasn't dirt anywhere. _____

d. There were rats everywhere. _____

e. There was someone to help you if you got sick. _____

f. Everybody died in 1665 _____

g. In 1666 something happened that helped people in London _____

h. No one died after 1666. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS