Materia: Inglés Colegio: I. S. I.

Curso: 4to año

Tema de la clase: Vocabulario: el mundo laboral (trabajos y cualidades personales)

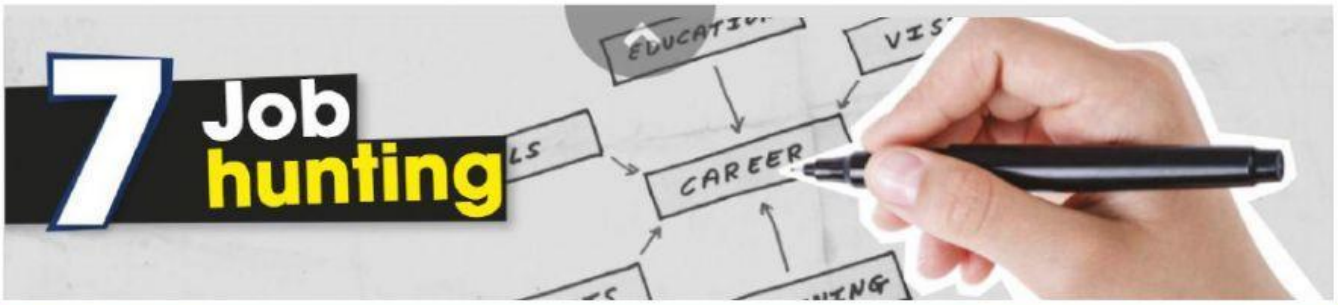
Book page: 84



VOCABULARY

1. What are the jobs in photos a-d? Use the words in the box to help you.

firefighter | fashion designer | nurse | journalist | vet | shop assistant | police officer | librarian | builder | mechanic | plumber | receptionist

2. Listen and repeat.

builder • fashion designer firefighter • journalist • librarian mechanic • nurse • plumber
police officer • receptionist
shop assistant • vet

3. PERSONAL QUALITIES. Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

sociable | hard-working | fit | ambitious | strong | creative | sensitive | caring | clever | confident | reliable | patient | calm

1. I'm a very well-organised person. I always plan very carefully and I know exactly what I'm doing.
2. You need to be _____ and _____ if you work with children because children need to know that you like them and will help them. You also need to be _____ and _____ because it's bad for the children if you get angry with them.
3. Police officers are usually _____ and _____ because in some situations they need to run fast and use force.
4. Top scientists are usually very _____. They can find the answer to very complicated problems. They are also _____. They need lots of imagination to think of new ideas.
5. Philip works in a bank. He's very _____ – you know that he'll do his work well. He's _____ too. He's often the first to start work and the last to leave.
6. Susan is very good at working in a team. She's very _____, she loves being with other people.
7. Firefighters need to be _____ in difficult or dangerous situations in order to help people.
8. Charles is really _____. He won't be happy until he's the company director!

4. Listen to four people describing their jobs. What jobs do you think they are?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____