Grammar 3A
so and such

Complete the sentences with so, such or such a.

1 Much of Bangladesh is _____ close to sea level that there's a constant risk of floods.

2 The Lut Desert in Iran has _____ hot climate that nothing can live there.

3 Hanakapiai Beach in Hawaii has _____ dangerous currents that people are advised not to swim there.

4 The Mariana Trench in the Pacific Ocean is _____ deep that the first manned vessel took nearly five hours to reach the bottom.

5 Antarctica has _____ extreme weather that nobody lives there permanently.

6 Hurricanes can generate _____ strong winds that they can destroy houses.

7 Mount Everest is _____ high that humans cannot survive for long at the top without oxygen.

8 Tutunendo in Columbia is _____ wet place that it gets over 11 metres of rain a year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Grammar 3B
so and such

Rewrite the sentences with so or such (a) and two other words so that the meaning stays the same.

1 The day was so cold that we decided not to go out.
It was _____ that we decided not to go out.

2 They've got such a big house that it must take days to clean!
Their house _____ that it must take days to clean!

3 They're such naughty kids that their teacher can't control them.
Those kids _____ that their teacher can't control them.

4 This film's so boring that I'm going to turn it off.
This is _____ that I'm going to turn it off.

5 That news is so good that we should go out and celebrate.
That's _____ that we should go out and celebrate.

6 This is such tasty cheese that I'm going to have a bit more.
This cheese _____ that I'm going to have a bit more.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Vocabulary 3
cold (metaphor)

Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

cold	ice	blood	shoulder	reception	voice

1 The rebel soldiers were captured and shot in cold _____.

2 I wasn't invited to lunch. My workmates left me out in the _____.

3 Bo's normally friendly, but lately he's been giving me the cold _____.

4 I asked for a pay rise. After an icy stare, she said 'no' in a cold _____.

5 Sam's idea for the new advertising campaign got a cold _____.

6 When I told Ian I was upset, he just said 'Oh'. He's as cold as _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS