

1. Look at the pictures and label them.

artery brain heart liver lungs muscles nerve spine

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

2. Complete the sentences with the correct words.

bones brain cell genes kidneys nerve skeleton spine veins

- 1 The supports our whole body. It has 270 when we are born.
- 2 Our central nervous system consists of the in our head and the in our back.
- 3 There are billions of cells—also called neurons—in the nervous system.
- 4 Arteries carry blood from your heart to your body; carry it back to the heart again.
- 5 You get your, which determine your physical characteristics, from your parents.
- 6 Your remove waste from your blood and produce urine.
- 7 A is the smallest structural and functional unit of an organism.