Decide if the phrases apply to New Year in China or Scotland, or both countries. Write the letters of the phrases in the appropriate columns. Then listen to an excerpt from a radio programme called The World View and check your work.

a celebrated in January or February b New Year starts on 1st January c Festival of Lanterns – people carry lights in street d young people receive red envelopes with money e people clean their houses f firework displays

g traditional song called 'Auld Lang Syne' h people throw things on the fires i processions with floats decorated like dragons j people go 'first footing' and take coal to friends' and neighbours' houses

LIVEWORKSHEETS