1 COOKING UP A LIFE-CHANGING INVENTION (vadovėlio 124 p.)

Read the text and choose from headings A-G the one which best summarises each paragraph. There are two headings you do not need to use.

0 E

1

2

3

4

A UNHEALTHY COOKING CONDITIONS

B NOT ABOUT PROFIT

C FROM A WEALTHY BACKGROUND

D A TRADITION CARRIED DOWN

E A GREAT IDEA

F PRESTIGIOUS AWARDS

G PROUD OF HIMSELF

2 IT'S ALL IN THE GENES (vadovėlis 130 p.)

You will read an article about genes. For each question choose the right answer by circling letter A, B, C or 0.

1 After the 1990 study, scientists still don't know

A the relationship between genes and disease.

B the functions of all our genes.

C the approximate number of genes we have.

D when they will finish identifying all our genes.

2 Huntington's disease

A is unlikely ever to be cured.

B does not affect children.

C is not uncommon.

D causes defects in the HTT gene.

3 According to the article, gene therapy

A is now being used to treat thousands of diseases.

B is a technique for finding faulty genes.

C is only in the early stages of development.

D won 't ever be as effective as conventional medicine.

4 People who take the same drug

A may experience a variety of reactions.

B usually suffer from a number of side effects.

C have a 75 percent chance of being cured.

D all recover, but at differing rates.

5 It is possible that doctors in the future will

A no longer need to write prescriptions.

B have one medicine that is effective for everyone.

C use medicines to change patients' genetic profiles

D be able to assess patient's drug needs precisely.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3 LISTENING (vadovėlis 125 p.)

You will hear a conversation between two friends about a new invention. Mark statements 1-5 T (true) or F (false).

1 Jimmy and Mark thought that the referee's decision was unfair.

2 The intelligent football takes the place of the referee.

3 During the game a central computer sends Information about the game to the referee.

4 The intelligent football is currently on the market.

5 The design of the football was changed because of a problem with an electrical switch .

4 LISTENING (vadovėlis 131 p.)

You will hear five people talking about inventions that have improved their lives. Match the statements (A-F) to the speakers (1-5). There is one extra statement that does not match any speaker.

Speaker 1

Speaker 2

Speaker 3

Speaker 4

Speaker 5

A It really helps me with my studies.

B It's got far more storage space than I need

C It allows me to put all my data in one database.

D With this, I can never get lost.

E This is far better than the older versions.

F With this I can be in constant contact with my loved ones.

LIVEWORKSHEETS