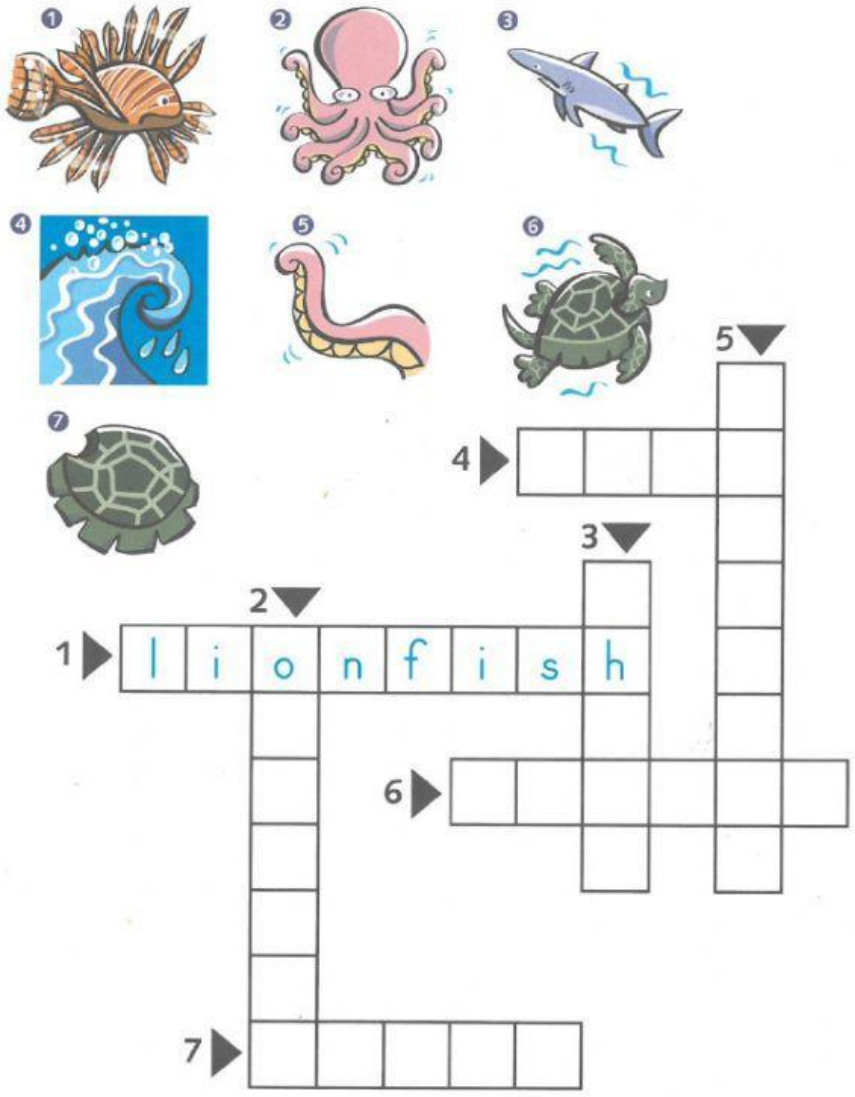
In the Ocean

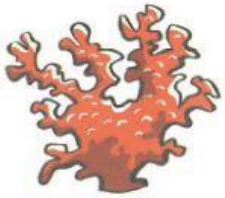
Read pages 2–5 again. Look and write.



Read pages 6–9 again.

Tick ✔ or cross ✘.

1. Coral reefs are made of tiny animals. ✔
2. No animals live around coral reefs. ✘
3. You can see many coral reefs in cities. ☐
4. Sea anemones are plants. ☐
5. Sea anemones don't catch clownfish. ☐
6. A sea dragon looks like seaweed. ☐
7. Sea dragons don't live in cold water. ☐
8. Crabs have ten pincers. ☐
9. The Japanese spider crab is very small. ☐



Read pages 10–13 again.
Look and number.

1. Their long tentacles can sting you. [3]
2. They are intelligent and very fast. [ ]
3. This can go deep down into the ocean. [ ]
4. Sometimes they swim with people. [ ]
5. They can be beautiful and dangerous. [ ]
6. This can take photographs of anglerfish. [ ]
7. They live in family groups. [ ]
8. This can find strange fish in dark places. [ ]
9. You can see right through them. [ ]

Read pages 14–16 again. Complete.

Dugongs are ___slow-moving___ animals. They are also called _____ because they eat green _____ .

Years ago _____ were _____ of manta rays, but now we know they are _____ .

Whales are the _____ of the sea. They are _____ , like dolphins and dugongs. They have warm _____ , and they _____ air.

After reading. Read and answer.

anglerfish	sea anemone	sea dragon
ocean	coral reef	octopus	lionfish

1. I look like seaweed.

   I'm a sea dragon .

2. I'm an animal that looks like a plant.

   I'm a _____ .

3. I have eight tentacles and can change colour.

   I'm an _____ .

4. I'm a home for thousands of fish.

   I'm a _____ .

5. I have stripes on my body.

   I'm a _____ .

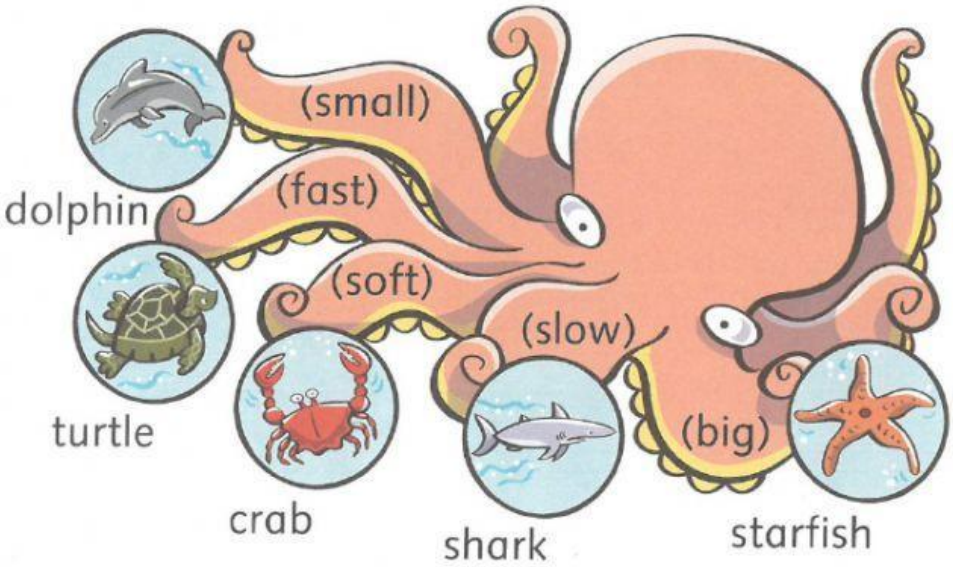
6. I have a light on my head.

   I'm an _____ .

7. I'm deep and full of life.

   I'm the _____ .

Look and write.



An octopus is smaller than a dolphin.

An octopus _____

An octopus _____

An octopus _____

An octopus _____