Grammar exercise on Language Spot: Complete the 4 rules with one of the 4 sentences

Language spot

Present Perfect

Put these examples under the correct rule:

Have you designed for women yet?
I've gained some good experience.
I haven't been involved in design work yet.
I've worked as a fashion buyer for the last two years.

- We use the Present Perfect to talk about something in the past when we do not say exactly when it happened.
I've travelled abroad to fashion shows and suppliers.

_____ 1

Present Perfect + for / since

- We use the Present Perfect to talk about actions in a period of time from the past until now. We use for with a period of time (e.g. three months) and since with a specific time (e.g. 2003).
I've had my own design label since 2003.

_____ 2

Present Perfect + (not) yet

- We use yet with a negative verb to say that something we expect has not happened.

_____ 3

- We use yet in questions to ask about things we expect to happen.

_____ 4

» Go to Grammar reference p.119

Writing exercise: write at least statements using affirmative, negative or interrogative forms, check that the past participle form is already given:

You can use the given verbs or new ones.

EXAMPLE

I've improved my English over the last six months.
I've studied hard and I've passed all my tests.

improved my English	read a lot of books
kept a diary	changed my look
been abroad	lost weight
finished a project	made some new friends
got fit	started ... ing

(+) _____

(+) _____

(-) _____

(-) _____

(?) _____

(?) _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS