History, Class III

Iron Age Settlement

Name: _____ Sec: _____ Roll No. _____ Date: _____

Cloze Passage –Iron Age

Celts	gods	hole	metal
Souls	Europe	sword	straw
Hillforts	stronger	Britain	lakes
roundhouses	attack	warmth	enemies

Fill in the missing word from the word ban to complete the cloze passage.

The Iron Age was given this name because it was the period when people began making things out of a _____ called iron. Iron is much _____than bronze and it was used to make many things including tools, weapons and armor.

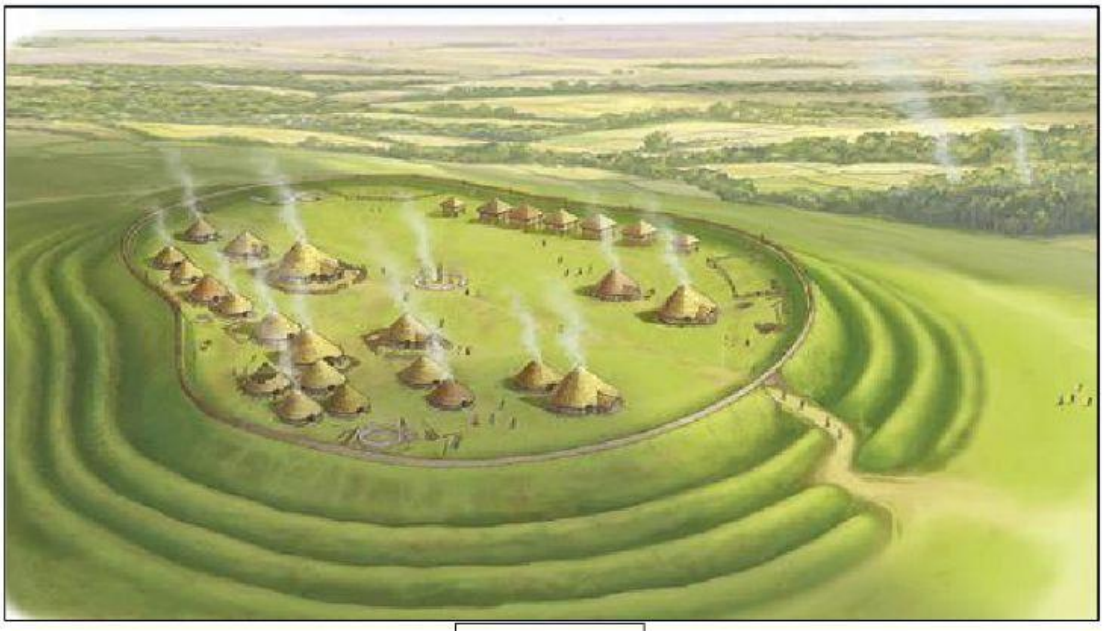
During the Iron Age, the _____lived across most of _____. They lived in _____ with thatched roofs made of _____ with mud placed on top to keep the _____ in. Animals were kept inside at night and fire was lit in the middle of the roundhouse for cooking and heating. There was a _____ in the roof so that the smoke could escape.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____ were built on top of hills to protect the people of the village in times of _____. They were also used as meeting place for people to exchange goods, livestock and services. The largest Iron Age hillfort in _____ today in Maiden Castle in Dorset.

The Iron Age Celts were very superstitious and believed in many _____. Many of the gods had no names but lived in woods and other places. People would throw offerings to the gods into _____ and rivers.

The Celts believed that the human _____ had an afterlife. Warriors were buried with a _____ or dagger, a shield or a helmet. The Celts also believed that the soul lived inside the head which is why they collected the heads of their _____ killed in battles.



Hillforts

LIVEWORKSHEETS