Prepositions

Fill in the gaps with suitable prepositions

1. Painstaking preparation is a prerequisite _____ success.
2. These reforms resonate _____ the most acute trends of society development.
3. Many societal changes happen incrementally and materialise _____ generations.
4. These issues stem _____ the lack of single unified international legislation.
5. We hope that our efforts will translate _____ greater stability.
6. Bridging the gap _____ rich and poor is the top priority of our policy.
7. All people are entitled to have equal rights regardless _____ their ethnicity, gender, age, and social status.
8. Our organisation embarks _____ the implementation of ambitious reforms across the board.
9. Hearing impairment does not preclude a person _____ becoming a successful goldsmith or an IT specialist.
10. This strategy enabled an organisation to capitalise _____ its comparative advantages.
11. The misleading report was swiftly branded _____ pseudo-science by the international fact-checking community for its flawed methodology and apparent political biases.

LIVEWORKSHEETS