Do you remember Bruno and Anna? We listened to them talking for the first time at a party last week. They talked about music and about a DJ called DJ Spooky.

1. Complete the short conversations at the party with the -ing form of these verbs.

do – enjoy – live – play – read – sit – stay – study – take - wait

1 A: What are you _____ out there?

B: We're _____ tennis, but we can't find the ball.

2 A: Why are you _____ alone in this room?

B: I'm _____ for a friend to call, but she's late.

3 A: Is your brother _____ a new language at college?

B: No, he isn't _____ languages any more.

4 A: I'm _____ a book by a Chilean author at the moment.

B: Oh, are you _____ it?

5 A: Is your sister still _____ with her friends near the college?

B: No, she isn't. She's _____ in one of the college rooms now. It's much better.

2. There were many people talking at that party. Complete the sentences with the present simple or present continuous of the verbs in brackets.

1 My sister usually _____ (watch) TV at night.

2 David _____ (be) from Mexico City.

3 Marta isn't here because she _____ (study) in the library.

4 Our football team _____ (practise) on Saturdays.

5 Be quiet, please I _____ (try) to use the phone.

6 Mum _____ (make) a chocolate cake. It smells fantastic!

7 Fatima's bringing her guitar this evening. She _____ (play) really well.

8 We want to go to the park, but it _____ (rain) too heavily.

3. Bruno and Anna met later that week, after the party. Complete the conversation with the present simple or present continuous form of these verbs.

be – be – do – go – play – wait – want - work

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A: What (1) _____ right now?

B: I (2) _____ to Ella's house.

A: Who (3) _____ Ella?

B: She (4) _____ a friend from my basketball team.

We (5) _____ basketball after school on Tuesdays.

(6) _____ you _____ to come?

A: Sorry, I can't. I (7) _____ for Tony because we (8) _____ together on a science project.

LIVEWORKSHEETS