Phrasal verbs

1. take out - to remove something from inside
2. set up - to arrange for something to happen / to start
3. take off - to remove
4. lie down - to take rest
5. take time off - to take some time for something
6. look into - to observe keenly
7. look at - to have a look at something
8. get up - to wake up
9. change into - to turn into
10. leave behind - to leave something as a token of memory or gift

Use the above phrasal verbs in the blanks. Make necessary changes in the verb forms.

Venkata Rao was a rich man. He wanted to _____ some business in the town. So he _____ a lot of money from the bank. On an auspicious day he started his medical business, which prospered by leaps and bounds. He became so busy that he could not _____ for any rest. He used to _____ very early in the morning and go to his office. In the afternoon he would _____ his shirt and _____ on his couch in the office. After a nap he would put on his shirt. Then he would _____ the mirror and _____ himself admiringly.

Anyhow he _____ some fame in the town even when he went abroad. Everybody believed that he _____ a new man.

LIVEWORKSHEETS