"There is" or "There are"?

Directions: Click on the phrase that completes the sentence.

1. _____ 30 students in class today.
   a. There is
   b. There are

2. _____ a teacher in the classroom.
   a. There is
   b. There are

3. _____ a piece of paper on the desk.
   a. There is
   b. There are

4. _____ pencils in the store.
   a. There is
   b. There are

5. _____ books in the living room.
   a. There is
   b. There are

6. _____ three rooms in the apartment.
   a. There is
   b. There are

7. _____a new apartment building on this street.
   a. There is
   b. There are

8. _____ a dictionary in the classroom.
   a. There is
   b. There are

9. _____ four people in Zoom class tonight.
   a. There is
   b. There are

10. _____ pictures on the website.
    a. There is
    b. There are

LIVEWORKSHEETS