The Princess and the Frog

ONCE UPON A TIME there was (1) _____ princess who had a golden ball. She lived in a palace with her father, the King, and her seven sisters. Every day she played with her ball in the garden of the palace.

At the end of the garden there was a (2) _____, dark lake. When the weather was (3) _____, the princess liked playing near the lake.

(4) _____, one day she dropped her golden ball into the water. She was very (5) _____ and she sat on the grass and started to cry.

(6) _____ she heard a voice: 'Don't cry, princess.'

She opened her eyes and saw a large (7) _____ frog. 'Oh, please help me!' she said, 'I can't get my ball.'

'I'll help you,' said the frog, 'if I can come and live with you in the palace!'

'Yes, yes, of course. I promise,' said the princess.

So the frog jumped into the water and came back with the ball. The princess laughed and took the ball. She ran (8) _____ back to the palace and forgot all about the frog.

The frog was very (9) _____. He followed the princess into the palace and told his story to the King.

'A promise is a promise,' said the frog.

'Yes,' said the King and called his daughter. 'A promise is a promise, my daughter. Take this frog to your room and look after him (10) _____.'

The princess started crying again, but she took the frog and put him on her bed. The frog looked at her and said (11) _____, 'Please kiss me, princess.' She closed her eyes and kissed him.

(12) _____, the frog turned into a (13) _____ prince. Of course, he and the princess fell in love. One week later they got married and they lived (14) _____ ever after.
