

Words & Meanings

Choose the correct ending to the sentences.

- When you close or join something securely, you fasten it. unravel it.
unlock it. unhook it.
- When you run a fever and feel ill, you are suffering from a
fit of happiness. moment of sadness.
butterflies in the stomach. sickness.
- When you fill a box to the brim, it's
overflowing. empty.
stuffed. half-full.
- When something tastes better than most things you've tasted, it's delicious. tasteless.
good. fair.
- When something is correct, it means it's fiction. legend.
factual. myth.

Words & Meanings

Choose the correct ending to the sentences.

1. When you close or join something securely, you
fasten it. unravel it.
unlock it. unhook it.
2. When you run a fever and feel ill, you are suffering from
a
fit of happiness. moment of sadness.
butterflies in the stomach. sickness.
3. When you fill a box to the brim, it's
overflowing. empty.
stuffed. half-full.
4. When something tastes better than most things you've
tasted, it's
delicious. tasteless.
good. fair.
5. When something is correct, it means it's
fiction. legend.
factual. myth.

- Words & Meanings

Choose the correct ending to the sentences.

 - When you close or join something securely, you
fasten it. unravel it.
unlock it. unhook it.
 - When you run a fever and feel ill, you are suffering from
a
fit of happiness. moment of sadness.
butterflies in the stomach. sickness.
 - When you fill a box to the brim, it's
overflowing. empty.
stuffed. half-full.
 - When something tastes better than most things you've
tasted, it's
delicious. tasteless.
good. fair.
 - When something is correct, it means it's
fiction. legend.
factual. myth.