Do you wish you were on a beach where the sand is golden and the water is [1]? Do you wish you could explore the [2] of the deep blue sea? Do you dream of camping in the desert under the stars? Imagine a holiday where you could do all of these things, and more ...

Welcome to Sharm el-Sheikh!

Sharm el-Sheikh is one of Egypt's biggest and most popular [3] It lies south of the Sinai Peninsula between the desert and the Red Sea. The climate is hot and sunny all year round and there are lots of exciting [4] for everyone.

The amazing Red Sea

The Red Sea is famous for its sea life and clear, beautiful water. You can snorkel close to the [5] in places such as Garden Reef Bay and see colourful, [6] fish and other incredible sea [7] swimming amongst the coral. There are around 1,500 different types of sea life along the coast and over 400 species of coral.

For the more adventurous visitors, the Red Sea is perfect for scuba diving. Don't worry if it's your first time. You can take a course at a diving school with trained instructors who will teach you everything you need to know. You can then go on a diving trip where you will discover the amazing sights of the deep sea, and may even come across an ancient [8].
