NEW WORDS

Put the words in the correct blanks

"It's a book that says the same thing almost all the other books in the world say," continued the old man. "It describes people's inability to choose their own destinies. And it ends up saying that everyone believes the world's greatest lie." "What's the world's greatest lie?" the boy asked, completely surprised. "It's this: that at a certain point in our lives, we lose control of what's happening to us, and our lives become controlled by fate. That's the world's greatest lie."

The Alchemist - Paulo Coelho

fate destinies lose control inability

Do you believe in _____ ? Because I think we are meant to be.

There is no way Sheila would _____ like that. She is too timid.

Mike's _____ to clean his room is making his Mom angry.

We are all working hard to fulfil our _____. Whatever it may be.

LIVEWORKSHEETS