Observe the pictures and match to the definitions.

	A group of organs that work together to form a function.
	A group of cells that work together.
	To make something appear larger
	The structure of connected things.
	Parts inside a cell that do specific jobs.
	A device that lets you see very small things.