Read the following paragraph carefully. Two words were given in bracket to fill in the blank. Choose the correct one and write in the blank.

Excessive amounts of homework can be
1(harmful / harmfully) to kids both 2(physical / physically) and mentally. A lot of homework usually means a lot of books to 3(carry / carrying).

Fifty-five percent of the Massachusetts (an institution in the U.S.A.) children, as per the survey by researchers of Simmons College, carry loads 4(heavy / heavier) than fifteen percent of their body weight, which is the 5(suggested / suggestion) limit. Carrying large amounts of weight daily at a young age can do a lot of damage because bones are still in 6(develop / development) stage.

Read the following paragraph carefully. Some words were given in the box. Choose the suitable word from the box and fill in the blank.

Stress,	siblings,	effective,	spend,
hinder,	relationships,	injury

Drag and drop the words in the blank.

The use of homework is(7) when used by the rule “less is more.” Overwhelming kids with loads of homework can cause them(8) and possible physical injury. Homework takes away from the small amount of time kids get to(9) with their parents and(10). A limit on their physical and social activities can also take a large toll on their lives, and could(11) their health and future(12).
