Wales is a beautiful country locates in the west of United Kingdoms. Its population is just under three million and most of Welsh people live in the south of the country. The capital of Wales is Cadiff. Wales has a long coastline, around 1,300 km.

The official languages of Wales are English and Welsh. welsh is very different from English. For example, in Welsh, 'Good morning is 'Bore da' and 'How are you?' is 'Sua mae?' Only around 20% of people in Wales speak Welsh but students have to learn this language at school until they tum 16. Street signs are also written in both English and Welsh.

The two main industries in Wales are tourism and farming. With its spectacular landscape and beaches, Wales attracts significant tourism. Cardiff is the most famous destination for visitors in Wales. Farming is dominated by raising cows and sheep, but it is now difficult to earn money from farming so many farms are closing. Many unemployed people are now leaving for the north to get jobs in the oil industry.
