Listening

Past Perfect

PAST PERFECT

We use the Past Perfect when we mention two events in the past and we need to emphasize the order.
Look at the timeline.

When I turned on the TV, the movie had already finished.

Event in the past	Event in the past	Present
PAST PERFECT	SIMPLE PAST

1st event: the movie finished
2nd event: I turned on the TV
Consequence: I missed the movie, that's why I'm disappointed.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A) Listen and match

-It was obvious that	he had forgotten about the assignment.
-She said	*they hadn't been vaccinated
-They had lived in California for six years	it had cost a little less.
-Jim had never	he had made a mistake.*
-Alice wanted everyone to try the dessert	she had prepared for the party.
-It seemed as though	I had met her somewhere else.
-My teacher admitted that	caught such a large fish before*
-They weren't certain if	the test had been successful.
-We would have bought the furniture if .	before they realized their mistake in moving there
-Many children died because	she hadn't slept all night

2) Put the words in order

because	bad news	all	stayed	night
she	received	She	had	up

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Italian | You | to | studied | Rome | moved

before | had | you

LIVEWORKSHEETS