III. Read. Write a word or a number.

Easter Island is in the Pacific Ocean. It is 1,900 kilometers from Pitcairn, the nearest island, and 3,500 kilometers from Chile. Only about 8,000 people live there. Eight hundred years ago, the Rapa Nui people lived on the island. They were good at building, but they didn't build pyramids or large towns. They built large statues called moai. These statues can be ten meters high and their faces are bigger than their bodies. There are more than 600 statues on the island. Today, the island is famous for its moai, but nobody knows why the Rapa Nui people built them.
