Unit 2: Exercise 4

Read the information. Then choose the word which best shows the writer's opinion.

Sometimes, you may need to understand how the writer feels about something. Pay attention to how the writer comments on facts. For example, by showing surprise, doubt or other emotions.

In the 1700s, ice cream started to become popular in the USA. Adverts began to appear in newspapers for a growing number of specialist ice-cream shops, which made and sold their own frozen desserts. As before, however, ice cream was only affordable for society's elite. The first American president, George Washington, was known to enjoy ice cream. He spent an incredible $200 on ice cream in just one year – the equivalent of at least $5,000 in today's money.

- ◯ popular
- ◯ specialist
- ◯ frozen
- ◯ affordable
- ◯ elite
- ◯ incredible
- ◯ equivalent

LIVEWORKSHEETS