Tips for Identifying

1. Find the main genre first

2. Look for details that reveal subgenre

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1

The Lion and the Mouse

Retold by Larry Raney

A Lion was sleeping when a Mouse woke him. The Lion was about to eat him when the Mouse said, “Let me go and I won’t forget it. Who knows? Maybe I’ll help you some day." The Lion laughed so much at this idea that he let the mouse go. Some time later the Lion was caught in a hunter’s trap. The little Mouse happened to pass by and, seeing the trapped Lion, he gnawed through the ropes and freed him. Little friends can be a big help.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Genre:

_____

- Subgenre:

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2

Brides of War

By Gloria Mallon

1942, as World War II is raging, three young ladies fall in love with three very different soldiers. These odd couples wind up on a triple date off-base one night. This seemingly romantic evening explodes into a situation that could make or break the allied war effort.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Genre:

_____

- Subgenre:

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3

The Many Adventures of Robin Hood

Adapted by Kirk Young

In this work, Young retells the many folktales concerning the mythical Robin Hood, who may have been a real person. In these adventures Robin Hood steals from the rich and gives to the poor in fascinatingly dashing ways. These tales have captured the imaginations of millions of delighted readers through the ages.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Genre:

_____

- Subgenre:

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4

The Awesome Book of Sharks

by Carrie Ann Powers

This book offers rare insights into the deep-sea lives of one of nature's deadliest, yet most misunderstood, killing machines. Learn where sharks live, what they eat, and how they bear their young. This book gives readers an up-close view of a shark's life.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Genre:

_____

- Subgenre:

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS