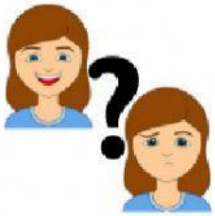
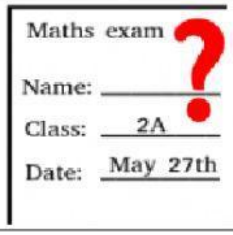
Wh-words 2

a) Choose the wh-word that each picture represents:

is Paris? Is it in the North?	is this? Is it a present?	is it, please?	dress is less expensive?
is the exam? One hour?	is it moving?	is the operation?	is your birthday?



are you feeling?	have you got an exam?	is the baby crying?	is it?



is at the door?	is this document?	is this exam? It has no name!	cars are there in the car park?

image sources: see wh-words 3

LIVEWORKSHEETS

b) Remember how we ask a wh-question:

	I am eating an orange.
1. Choose the correct wh-word →	→ What? An orange.
2. Transform the affirmative structure into an interrogative structure →	Affirmative: I am eating ↘ ↙ → Interrog.: Are you eating… ?
3. Use this word order: wh-word + Aux + S	What are you eating?
Exception: wh-word + (Aux) + V S	John is eating an apple. ↓ ↓ Who is eating an apple?

c) Ask wh-questions about the underlined information.

Use wh-words from this list (you can click on them to mark them as you use them):

?

how how many how much how long what

what time when where which why

GLOSSARY
(new words)

1. I am making a pizza for dinner.

2. The teacher is waiting for us in room 15.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. The doctors are worried because he's not responding to the treatment.

4. The Prime Minister was having a party during the confinement.

5. The policemen were watching the home for two days.

6. There is too much noise in this room.

7. There are twenty-six people on this bus.

8. I have made the cheese sandwiches, she has made the tuna ones.

9. Harry can come at a quarter past eleven.

10. You must answer the questions using a blue pen.

LIVEWORKSHEETS