HARRY POTTER AND THE PHILOSOPHER'S STONE

THE BOY WHO LIVED

May, 22nd - Pages 11 and 12

1) Match the words with their meaning.

shooting star	in a way that will cut or make a hole
sharply	with strange appearance
pursed	a piece of rock or metal that burns very brightly when it enters the Earth's atmosphere from space
funny-looking	express disapproval or irritation with your lips

2) Mark with an (x)true or false.

Statement	T	F
Kent, Yorkshire and Dundee are very near to each other.
Mr. Dursley decided to tell Petunia about her sister.
Petunia knew already about the owls and the strange things of the day.
Mr. Dursley went to bed quietly that night.

3) Put the events in order.

(__) The Dursleys got into bed.

(__) The Dursleys had some tea.

(__) A tall, thin and very old appeared.

(__) Albus Dumbledore rummaged in his cloak.

(__) Mr. Dursley noticed the cat was still at the corner of the street.

(__) He flicked the cigarette lighter open

LIVEWORKSHEETS