Colegio Patriarca San José.
Unit 3. How much are these?
Teacher: Roberto Bolaños Q.
Vocabulary taken from listening tracks about shopping.
Student´s name: _____ Group: 8-___ A B.

Adjust: To alter or change something slightly in order to fit a particular situation or need.
Awful: Extremely bad or unpleasant; causing feelings of dismay or horror.
Concern: A feeling of worry or anxiety about a particular issue or situation.
Customer: A person who purchases goods or services from a business or organization.
Disagree: To hold or express a different opinion or view from someone else.
Display: A surface or device for showing images, information, or data.
Equipment: Tools, machinery, or other items needed for a particular purpose or activity.
Expensive: Costing a lot of money; requiring a significant amount of financial resources to obtain.
Factory: A building where products are manufactured or assembled by machines and workers.
Furniture: Objects such as chairs, tables, and beds that are used to make a room suitable.
Holding: The act of grasping or supporting something with one's hands or arms.
Huge: Extremely large in size, amount, or degree; vast or immense.
Imply: To suggest or indicate something indirectly or without explicitly stating it.
Inside out: With the inside part turned outward.
Jogging: A form of running at a steady, gentle pace, often as a form of exercise.
Just right: Exactly suitable or appropriate for a particular situation; neither too much nor too little.
Keep looking: To continue searching or seeking something, often with persistence or determination.
Leaving: The act of departing or exiting from a particular place or situation.
Look good: To have a pleasing or attractive appearance; to be visually appealing.
Manufacturing: The process of producing goods through the use of machinery or industrial process.
Pattern: A repeated decorative design or motif, often used in fabrics, wallpapers. Etc.
Price: The amount of money that is expected, required, or given in exchange for something.
Receipt: A written paper that something has been received, typically used in commercial transactions.
Room: It refers to the capacity or space available for something, such as the amount of space.
Seat: A place for sitting, especially one for a particular person or occupant.
Special feature: Unique or distinctive aspect or characteristic of a product.
Store: A retail establishment where goods or services are sold to customers.
Suggest: To put forward an idea, proposal, or recommendation for consideration.
Try on: To test the fit or appearance of clothing or footwear by putting it on one's body.
Warranty: a written paper promising to repair or replace it if necessary within a specified period of time.
Waterproof: Resistant to the penetration of water, typically through the use of special materials.
Well made: High quality or skillfully constructed.

INSTRUCTIONS: Complete the following sentences by writing the correct word from the box on the correct space according to the concept or definition.

expensive – factory - customer - jogging – receipt - concerned – disagree – warranty - well made – store –

1. My new shirt is _____ I mean it is high quality or skillfully constructed.
2. An establishment where goods or services are sold to customers is called a _____.
3. Being _____ is a feeling of worry or anxiety about a particular issue or situation.
4. When something is costing a lot of money it means that the object is very _____.
5. _____ is a form of running at a steady, gentle pace, often as a form of exercise.
6. A written paper used in commercial transactions is called a _____
7. To _____ is to deny an express a different opinion or view from someone else.
8. A_____ is a person who purchases goods or services from a business or organization.
9. A paper promising to repair or replace a product within a specified period of time is called _____
10. A _____is a building where products are manufactured by machines and workers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS