

Sentence Fragments

- A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought.
For example: I wash my hands before eating.
- A sentence fragment fails to be a sentence. It does not form a complete thought. It lacks the subject, the predicate, or both.
For example: The Health Minister.

Directions: For each of the following, write S for sentence and F for fragment.

1. _____ A long time ago.
2. _____ Naledi and Tiro.
3. _____ They both took a journey.
4. _____ The kids went to look for their mom.
5. _____ In Johannesburg.
6. _____ Dineo was very sick.
7. _____ During the trip.
8. _____ Eat oranges.
9. _____ A man gave them a ride.
10. _____ The train was crowded.
11. _____ Found a woman named Grace.
12. _____ Went back home.