Name: _____ Date: _____Year: _____

Adjectives that Compare- Grammar Quiz

1. Which sentence is correct? Tom wants to compare two of his shirts.

a. The blue shirt is shorter than the red shirt.

b. The blue shirt is more shorter than the red shirt.

c. The blue shirt is short than the red shirt.

2. Veronica wants to compare her shoes to her classmates' shoes.

a. My shoes are clean shoes than yours!

b. My shoes are cleaner than yours!

c. My shoes are more cleaner than yours!

Use the pictures and the adjective below to write a sentence using an adjective that compares.

3. sweet

_____

4. large

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Add "er" to the adjective in the sentence

5. Mr. Garcia's car is always (clean) than his son's car.

_____

Isabella was excited that her music was (loud) than her brother's voice.

_____

REFLECTION. Complete the sentence below.

6. The ending "er" is added to an adjective when _____

_____

BONUS!!!!!!- Create your own sentence comparing two nouns using an adjective that compares. Then draw the things below.

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS