THE BIRD WHO SAID 'THANK YOU'

My friends and I were in the park celebrating Lama's birthday with a picnic when we heard a strange sound. We saw a big, colorful bird in a tree that looked weak and unhappy. We gave it some water and cheese, and it soon drank the water and ate the cheese. We took some pictures because we wanted to show our friends in school. After a few minutes, it shook its feathers, squawked (maybe to say 'thank you'), and flew away.
