5. High frequency: I've stayed late at the office.

.....

6. Zero frequency: The work I do is boring.

.....

7. Low frequency: We see policemen on the streets.

.....

8. Medium frequency: The program doesn't work properly.

.....

11. Combine the information in one sentence. Decide if the adverbial goes in mid position or end position.

1. Lucy: I buy a newspaper. Every day I get one.
   Lucy .....
2. Mark: I don't go to the theatre. Well, I seldom go.
   Mark .....
3. Adam: I've thought about emigrating. Often.
   Adam .....
4. Kate: In the evening I cook a meal. Well, most evenings I do.
   Kate .....
5. Alice: I won't get married. That'll never happen.
   Alice .....

12. Put one of the adverbs in brackets into the second sentence.

1. The two photos aren't identical. But they're similar. (fairly/hardly)

   .....

2. This is important to me. It matters. (a lot/ extremely)

   .....

3. I don't like the other posters at all. This one is the best. (completely/easily)

   .....

4. Oliver shouted and swore at everyone. He behaved impolitely. (a bit/extremely)

   .....

5. I'm not quite sure if you're right. I'm convinced by your arguments. (completely/half)

   .....

6. Is the story true? Are you running a dating agency? (quite/really)

   .....

7. Our teacher is quite young. He isn't old. (slightly/very)

   .....

8. My new job is great. I feel happier now. (much/very)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

.....

9. The party was great. We enjoyed it. (nearly/very much)

.....

10. I feel quite warm. I'm not cold. (at all/fairly)

.....

11. I'm glad I met your friend. She's nice (rather/slightly)

.....

12. What's so good about this new version? Is it better than the old one? (any/ some)

.....

13. Put the words into the correct order and form a statement.

1. Mark and I didn't agree. (an / argument / I had / quite / with him)

.....

2. I like Judy very much. (a / nice / personality / she's got / such)

.....

3. Sam says some crazy things sometimes. (a / an / bit / he's / idiot / of)

.....

4. I can't park here. (a / small / space / there's / too)

.....

5. I think we can win. (a / fairly / strong / team / we've got)

.....

6. I can't answer that. (a / difficult / it's / question / rather)

.....

7. The work will take a long time, you know. (a / big / it's / job / quite)

.....

8. No wonder we're tired. (a / long / quite / way / we've walked)

.....

9. It's great to see you again. (a / for / I haven't seen/ long / such / time / you)

.....

10. You can draw brilliantly. (a/ as / as that / drawing / good / I couldn't do)

.....

14. Look at the information in the first sentences and put in the adverbs. Be careful with the spelling.

1. Emma's toothache was terrible. Her tooth ached terribly.
2. Henry was angry. He shouted _____ at the waiter.
3. I'm happy sitting here. I can sit here _____ for hours.
4. The machine is automatic. It switches itself off _____.
5. The debate should be public. We need to debate the matter _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS