Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions from 21 to 25.

Every year several thousand people died in the car accidents in Great Britain. And between one and two hundred thousand people are hurt.

There are rules to make the roads safe, but people do not always obey the rules. They are careless. If everybody obeys the rules, the road will be much safer. How can we make the roads safer?

Remember this rule. In Great Britain, traffic keeps to the left. Cars, buses and bikes must all keep to the left side of the road. In most other countries, traffic keeps to the right.

Before crossing the road, stop and look both ways. Look right and left. Then, if you are sure that the road is clear, it is safe to cross the road. If you see small children or very old people, help them to cross the road. We must teach our children to cross the road safely. We must always give them a good example. Small children must not play in the street.

21. If we want to make the roads safer, _____.

A. everybody must be careful and obey the traffic rules

B. traffic should keep to the right

C. we should not cross the road too often

D. all the roads must be clear

22. If you ride a bike in Great Britain, you must ride _____.

A. on the right side of the road

B. on the left side of the road

C. in the middle of the road

D. behind the buses

23. Which of the following is NOT true, according to the passage?

A. Few people die in the traffic accidents in Great Britain.

B. In our country traffic keeps to the right.

C. Cars kill many people every year.

D. Streets are not safe places for playing.

24. What does it mean by "The road is clear."?

A. The road is not noisy.

B. The road is very clean.

C. There is no car or bus running.

D. You can see clearly on the road.
