Use the following sentences to fill in with the appropriate expressions from the list.

1. The new AI development is _____ in healthcare, offering advanced diagnostic tools.
2. While AI can manage data efficiently, the chance of it completely replacing human decision-making is _____.
3. With AI becoming more _____, its applications in various fields are expanding rapidly.
4. AI's role in automation is definitely _____, but it's still _____ to replace creative jobs.
5. Even though AI is _____ in the field of robotics, human creativity and emotional intelligence still play a crucial role.

a. it is a long shot
b. it is on the cutting edge
c. tech-savvy
d. it is pushing the envelop
e. there is slim chance
f. a game-changer,

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Expressions to describe challenges

- Something that has both positive and negative effects. Technology can be beneficial, but it also has downsides.

- Something that is undesirable but necessary. Many people feel that technology is essential despite its drawbacks.

- Something that happens very quickly, often referring to how rapidly technology changes, sometimes leading to problems.

- Being trapped or entangled in something, often used to describe how people can become overwhelmed by technology.

- "Many people are caught in the web of constant notifications and feel overwhelmed by technology."

- "New software updates can turn our devices into paperweights in the blink of an eye if they're not compatible."

- "Smartphones are a necessary evil in our daily lives; they can be intrusive but are hard to live without."

- "Social media is a double-edged sword; it connects people but can also lead to privacy issues."

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Fill in the blanks with the correct idiomatic expression:

1. Artificial intelligence in the workplace is often seen as _____. While it can increase efficiency and handle repetitive tasks, it can also lead to job displacement and reduced human interaction.
2. In the field of data privacy, technology has become _____. It helps companies analyze vast amounts of data but also raises concerns about personal information being misused.
3. Technological advancements can happen _____, making it difficult for regulations to keep up. This rapid change can result in security vulnerabilities and unforeseen consequences.
4. With the rise of social media algorithms, users can find themselves _____, where their online experiences are shaped by targeted content, potentially reinforcing biases and limiting exposure to diverse perspectives.
5. Autonomous vehicles are considered _____. They promise to reduce accidents caused by human error but also pose risks if there are malfunctions or ethical dilemmas in decision-making processes.
6. AI-driven marketing tools can quickly analyze consumer behavior and personalize advertising, but this technology can also _____ users in _____, where they are constantly targeted by ads based on their online activity and preferences.

ANSWERS

a. A double-edged sword

b. A necessary evil

c. In the blink of an eye

d. Caught in the web

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Let's complete the ideas

1. "AI advancements are a double-edged sword; they -_____ but can also lead to _____."
2. "Technology is a necessary evil in today's world, As it has changed how we _____ , but it often comes with a hefty price tag and potential security risks."
3. "Innovations in technology can occur in the blink of an eye, just like _____ and _____ transforming the _____ field.
4. "The internet often catches users in a web of _____ , which can be both engaging and isolating.
5. "AI-powered _____ which is now a game-changer, offering _____, though it also introduces questions about _____."
6. "_____ is always on the cutting edge.
7. "_____ keeps pushing the envelope with groundbreaking solutions."
8. "As AI technology advances, _____ companies are in the driver's seat, setting new standards and trends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS