PAST SIMPLE VS PRESENT PERFECT

I. Choose the correct option to complete the sentence.

1. I read/´ve read 12 books since the start of this year.
2. What did you cook/have you cooked for dinner last night?
3. Did you finish/Have you finished your Maths homework yet?
4. Danielle went/has gone for a run and she isn´t back yet.
5. We often helped/have often helped in the kitchen when we were children.

II. Write SIMPLE PAST or PRESENT PERFECT according to the rule.

1. To talk about completed actions that happened in a time which is now finished.
2. For past events at an unknown or irrelevant time.
3. For events repeated over a period of time until the present.
4. For something that happens in a period of time which is not finished.
5. With time markers still, just, yet, already.

LIVEWORKSHEETS