

ADJECTIVES

Objective: Differentiate adjectives ending in ED and ING.

ADJECTIVES ENDING IN -ED DESCRIBE EMOTIONS - THEY TELL US HOW PEOPLE FEEL. E.G. I'M BORED.

ADJECTIVES ENDING IN -ING DESCRIBE THE THING THAT CAUSES THE EMOTION. E.G. A BORING LESSON

A. Match each -ed adjective with an adjective that has a similar meaning.

depressed	moved	amused	worried	shocked	bored
annoyed	frightened	thrilled	humiliated	disappointed	puzzled

- | | | | |
|-----------------|-------|-------------------|-------|
| 1. entertained | | 7. happy | |
| 2. anxious | | 8. scared | |
| 3. irritated | | 9. embarrassed | |
| 4. confused | | 10. surprised | |
| 5. disheartened | | 11. disinterested | |
| 6. emotional | | 12. sad | |

B. Complete the sentences with suitable -ed adjectives from Exercise A.

- Everyone was when they saw a big bear near the campsite.
- My sister was very last night when our dog didn't come home.
- I studied very hard for this exam and I failed. I'm very in myself because I was expecting to do better.

4. Yesterday, I lost my job and I felt kind of but when I got home my husband had prepared a beautiful surprise for me. I was
5. The university lecture was supposed to be interesting but it wasn't. I was the whole time.
6. My best friend has just told me that she is mad at me but I'm completely because I don't know what I've done.
7. My son is a great storyteller. He always tells funny stories at dinner and I sit there feeling
8. My sister told us she didn't want to have children but when she announced she was pregnant we were all and of course to hear the news!
9. Last week, I had to give a big speech for a university assignment. I had prepared a lot for this presentation but when I got up on stage I forgot everything! I was
10. I'm always when my sister borrows my clothes without asking me.

C. Choose the correct -ed or -ing adjective in each sentence.

1. Alfred wanted to get first place in the 10km race, but he got second. He was very disappointed / disappointing.
2. My sister and I spent all day trying to build a bookshelf. The instructions weren't clear so we were completely puzzled / puzzling.
3. While I was eating dinner at a restaurant last night, I saw the waiter drop two glasses of wine on a guest. I felt horrible for him, how humiliated / humiliating!
4. One of the most annoyed / annoying things is when I'm trying to sleep and there's a mosquito buzzing in my ear.
5. It was shocked / shocking to find out that my colleague quit without notice. I'm definitely not thrilled / thrilling about it because now I have a lot more work to do.
6. I don't find carnivals amused / amusing because I'm frightened / frightening of clowns.
7. My uncle is quite bored / boring, he doesn't find anything funny and our interests are very different.

8. I watched a film last night where a dog spent the whole night beside his sick owner. It was incredibly moved / moving.

9. I'm not worried / worrying about losing my job. My boss loves me!

10. The film Titanic has one of the most depressed / depressing endings I've ever seen.