presentation	interviewed	expressing	in public
opinions	joke	face-to-face	in touch

1 I prefer having face-to-face meetings with my colleagues, rather than talking to them on the phone.
2 She used her laptop to give an extremely clear _____ of her project in class.
3 Our teacher always tells a _____ at the beginning of each lesson. Sometimes they're quite funny; sometimes they're terrible.
4 Although I left the country fifteen years ago, I still keep _____ with some of my old friends.
5 The politician was _____ by a journalist from The Times.
6 He isn't very good at _____ his feelings. He's rather shy so I never know if he's happy or not.
7 She doesn't usually say much in meetings. I don't think she likes speaking _____.
8 David's a very direct person. He always gives his _____ about my paintings.

ot

COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH THE WORDS IN THE BOX

tiny	impossible	fantastic	delicious
miserable	freezing	useless	filthy

1 We had a fantastic holiday in Bali. The weather was lovely, the hotel was perfect and the beaches were beautiful.
2 The weather was _____ when I was in Moscow last week – minus 15° during the day!
3 He's renting a _____ flat in the centre of Paris – it's only got one room!
4 The children looked so _____ when their pet rabbit died.
5 He spoke so quickly it was _____ to understand what he was saying.
6 Nobody had cleaned the kitchen for months. It was absolutely _____.
7 Thanks for a lovely dinner. The seafood risotto was absolutely _____. You must give me the recipe.
8 My football team are completely _____. We lost our last match 6 – 0.