Empower B1 U11B

1 GRAMMAR Articles

a Complete the conversation at a tourist office with the correct articles: a, an, the or X.

A Good morning. Please take [1] a seat. I'll be with you in [2]_____ moment … Now, how can I help you?

B Could you help us to find [3]_____ hotel in [4]_____ London, please?

A Yes, of course. Would you like [5]_____ hotel in the city centre?

B Yes, if possible.

A OK, how about [6]_____ Hotel Stella? They've got some rooms free.

B Is it near [7]_____ underground station?

A Yes, it is. It's about five minutes' walk from [8]_____ Marble Arch station. And it's very close to [9]_____ Hyde Park. It's one of [10]_____ nicest hotels in London.

B Great. Can you ask if they have [11]_____ double room for three nights? And can you check [12]_____ price?

A Yes, sure. I'm afraid [13]_____ hotels in London are really expensive. A lot of [14]_____ people think that London's [15]_____ most expensive city for [16]_____ tourists in [17]_____ world.

B Yes, [18]_____ hotel that we stayed in last year cost over £200 a night!

A Right, I've booked it for you. When you come out of [19]_____ underground station, go along [20]_____ Edgware Road for about 200 metres and it's on [21]_____ right, opposite [22]_____ cinema.

B Brilliant. Thanks very much.

b Correct the sentences.

1 That film was most exciting thriller I've ever seen.
That film was the most exciting thriller I've ever seen.

2 In the UK, the police officers don't usually carry guns.
_____

3 I love the Italian ice cream. It's the best in the world!
_____

4 They drove to Paris by car and then stayed in the lovely hotel near the Eiffel Tower.
_____

5 France is the most popular country for the tourists in the world.
_____

6 Doctors in USA are paid much more than nurses.
_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS