EXERCISE 7

Read the email. Choose the correct endings for the sentences.

Hi, Sara!

I've just gone online and read your email. Thanks! It was good to hear from you. Your first holiday in New York sounds fantastic. As you know, I've been to America several times, but I've never visited New York City. I've usually spent time further north in some towns on a big river near Canada. I've also sailed in a small boat across one of the Great Lakes into Canada. That was really exciting.

I've seen TV programmes about Central Park, but I didn't know there was a zoo in the park. I've also seen lots of photos of the Statue of Liberty and I've read a lot about its history as well. I think it was a present to the American people from France. Am I right?

Have you eaten many American beef burgers yet and have you drunk any real cola? I think they are both so much better than what we can buy here. Or am I dreaming?

Bye for now,

Max

1. Max read Sara's email
   - a long time ago.
   - in the last few minutes.
   - yesterday.
2. He has visited the US
   - never.
   - once.
   - three or four times.
3. He's often visited
   - New York City.
   - some towns in Canada.
   - some towns near Canada.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. He's sailed in a small boat

    - on a lake
    - on the sea.
    - on a river.

5. He's seen TV programmes about

    - the Statue of Liberty.
    - Central Park.
    - the zoo.

6. He's studied the history of

    - France.
    - the Statue of Liberty.
    - American food and drink.

LIVEWORKSHEETS