1 Listen and read. What happened to Fuzzy?

Mia: Morning! Oh, no! Where's Fuzzy? He was sleeping in my pocket five minutes ago.

Luke: Think hard, Mia. It's nine o'clock now. What was he doing at ten to nine? Was he playing in your bedroom?

Mia: Yes, he was. He was playing and I was getting dressed.

Luke: And at five to nine? Was he sitting here in the restaurant with you?

Mia: No, he wasn't. I was lying in the yard, over there. Fuzzy was sitting in my pocket. I was waiting for you.

Luke: Aha! Was it hot? Was the sun shining?

Mia: Yes, it was.

Luke: Mia. You're wearing a T-shirt. You don't have any pockets!

Mia: Huh! I was wearing my sweatshirt. Oh, no! My sweatshirt's in the yard and Fuzzy's sleeping in the pocket! Fuzzy!

2 Answer the questions.

1. Was Fuzzy sleeping at five to nine?
2. Was Mia sleeping at ten to nine?
3. Was Mia sitting in the restaurant at five to nine?
4. Was the sun shining this morning?
5. Was Mia wearing a sweatshirt this morning?
6. Is she wearing a sweatshirt now?

3 Talk to a friend.

1. Was it raining this morning?
2. Was your dad sleeping at twenty to six this morning?
3. Was your mom wearing a sweatshirt this morning?
4. Are you wearing a shirt now?

Grammar Stop

Check (✓) the possible answers to the question: Was he sleeping?

Yes, he was./No, he wasn't. ☐ Yes, he is./No, he isn't. ☐

Workbook page 25

LIVEWORKSHEETS