Chapter 10

Summer Special

In the hot summer season, we enjoy our holidays at hill stations.

Read the clues and write the names of hill stations. Also write the States/UTs where they are located.

1. Found in the Pir Panjal Range of the Himalayas, its name means 'meadow of flowers'. _____ _____
2. The only hill station in India's largest state, located in the Aravalli Range. _____ _____
3. Known for its tea plantations, found in the deep south of the Western Ghats. _____ _____
4. Nestled in the Himalayas, you can see the majestic Kanchenjunga from here. _____ _____
5. The name of this hill station, in the Kumaon Hills, is a combination of the words for eye and lake. _____ _____
6. A pedestrian-only hill station in the Sahyadri mountain range. _____ _____
7. A hill station in the Shivalik Range, that gives the state its tourism logo–the peafowl. _____ _____
8. In the heart of India, called the Queen of the Satpuras. _____ _____
9. The only hill station in India's westernmost state. _____ _____
10. Also known as Mercara, found in the southern part of the Western Ghats. _____ _____
11. Known as the Queen of the Nilgiris. _____ _____
12. Further uphill from Kullu, found in the abode of snow. _____ _____

Help Card

Hill Stations : Saputara, Ooty, Nainital, Madikeri, Pachmarhi, Morni Hills, Munnar, Manali, Mount Abu, Matheran, Gulmarg, Darjeeling.

States/UTS : Karnataka, Haryana, Rajasthan, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, West Bengal, Himachal Pradesh, Maharashtra, Uttarakhand, Madhya Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir, Gujarat.

LIVEWORKSHEETS