My name is Clara Amelia, but my friends call me Amel. I was born in Yogyakarta, June 17th 1993.

I'm 30 years old. As the oldest children in the family, I have responsibility to take care of my brothers and sisters.

I started my career as a teacher in Senior High School.

Suddenly, I found that my passion is to become a scientist. I decided to take a master degree abroad.

It was such a big decision in my life which could change everything.

During the hard times, I joined a lecturer's project. It was difficult but it built me to be strong. I graduated from my master degree last year and became a real scientist.
