3) Bill says that B.B. has learned something. What did she learn?

4) Why does Bill use the expression 'the plot thickens'?

5) Bill also compliments B.B. and tells he is proud of her. Why is he proud? What would be a good adjective to describe B.B. in this case?

6) When B.B. helps Bill to find a better adjective to describe Beatrix's hair, they are switching a regular adjective to an extreme (non-gradable) one.

Complete the table below adding (i) a regular adjective, (ii) the related non-gradable adjective and (iii) a sentence using the adjective in its comparative, superlative, equative or non-equative form.

Adjective	Extreme adjective	Sentence
funny	hilarious	I couldn't stop laughing at the comedian's latest show - it was even more hilarious than his previous one!

7) When following the conversation, we see that Bill keeps talking with B.B. and Beatrix. Put their conversation to understand what happened between them.

Bill: I love Mommy, but I did to Mommy what you did to Emilio.
	Bill: Worse. I shot Mommy. Not pretend shoot, like we were just doing. I shot her for real.
	B.B.: Did you want to see what would happen?
	Bill: Why don't you ask Mommy.
	Beatrix: No sweety, it doesn't hurt anymore.
	B.B.: What happened?
	Bill: I was very sad. And that was when I learned, some things once you do, they can never be undone.
	B.B.: You stomped on Mommy?
	Bill: I don't know.
	B.B.: Are you okay Mommy. Does it hurt?
	B.B.: Why?
	B.B.: What happened to Mommy?
	Bill: No, I knew what would happen to Mommy if I shot her. What I didn't know, is when I shot Mommy, what would happen to me.
