Read about Sarah ‘s travelling and answer the questions

- Sarah is from the United States. She lives in a small town with her husband and her dog in Washington State, which is located in the northwest of the United States. She works as a banker. She loves dancing, but she hates singing because she has a terrible voice. So she never sings. She also loves traveling to other countries and learning about other cultures. When she has a vacation, she usually travels to other countries and celebrates the local holidays with the local people.
  This year, she is planning to go to Mexico. She wants to celebrate Cinco de Mayo there. She is excited about her trip, but she has one problem. She can’t speak Spanish. She only speaks English. So she wants to learn Spanish before she travels to Mexico. This way, she can talk with the local people there.

- Put a title for the story
- What does Sarah do?
- Why does she hate singing?
- Is she married?
- Does she have a cat?
- What does she do when she has a vacation?
- What is her problem this year for travelling?
- why does she want to learn Spanish?
- Is this story in present time or past?
- Is she talking about her habits?
- Do we say that Sarah dance or Sarah dances? And why?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS