He enjoys finding out about friendship in the 21st century.

1 After some verbs, such as enjoy and hate, we use the -ing form.

Hugging is good for us.*

2 We can use the -ing form as the subject of a sentence.

Are you good at keeping in touch with your friends?

3 Some adjectives are followed by a preposition and then by the -ing form.

Complete the sentences with the -ing form of the verbs in the box.

go	learn	prepare	read	visit	work

1 I don't mind _____ to the cinema with my parents and their friends.

2 _____ English is easy, especially when I'm with my friends.

3 The girls enjoyed _____ a presentation together for their English class.

4 David can't stand _____ in groups in class, as he always disagrees with the other people.

5 Pablo is interested in _____ more articles about friendship in the 21st century.

6 _____ museums is part of our history class.

3 Match the sentence halves.

1 Jo is afraid	a about playing online games with her friends.
2 Mike is good	b of disappointing her friends.
3 Jackie is keen	c on going to football matches with friends.
4 Nina is crazy	d in making music in the school band.
5 Phil is interested	e at listening to other people's problems.