1. The teacher is in _____ and decides when to move onto the next question.
2. The _____ is probably doing most of the talking.
3. Just because the teacher has heard someone say the answer it doesn't mean that all the students know what the _____ answer is.
4. This method doesn't help _____ students – they often get lost during the feedback, especially if they have a lot of incorrect answers.
5. It doesn't tell the teacher what _____ the students had with the activity or if they need further practice.
6. It's time _____ and sometimes even a waste of time.
7. The _____ of the lesson slows down.
8. Sometimes students don't listen to the answers, especially when their _____ speak.
9. If the answers are long or there are a few _____ answers, feedback gets noisy and confusing.
10. Doesn't develop _____. Students become more teacher-dependent.

LIVEWORKSHEETS