Watch the video and listen carefully to fill in the gaps with a word from the box.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DrAr9HKBwnI

hall, party, Ireland, Irish, afternoon, money, make, buy, apples, costumes, Europe, aliens, teeth, tradition, pumpkins, ghosts

Halloween is celebrated in the USA and is popular in ....., too! Many children and adults go to Halloween parties wearing scary ..... and masks. American children take their costumes and masks to school. Some typical Halloween costumes are witches, ..., skeletons, monsters, vampires and ..... .

Many parents ..... the costumes themselves but some prefer to ..... them. In the ....., the children put on their costumes and have a Halloween ..... at school. Pumpkins, ghosts, witches and bats decorate the school ..... and the classrooms.

Bobbing for ..... is an old english game. To play this game you put water and apples in a big bowl. The apples stay on top of the water. You must take an apple out of the water with your ..... but you can't use your hands. It's not easy! Many people get very wet!

It is a popular tradition in the USA to buy a big pumpkin and make a Jack – o – lantern. People put them in front of the windows of their homes or in their gardens. This tradition started in Great Britain and ..... . They didn't use pumpkins then they used big turnips. In the United States, there weren't any turnips, so people used ..... .

Another popular Halloween ..... is "Trick or treating". This began in the 19th century and it was an ..... tradition. Children or teenagers go trick or treating in the evening. They visit their neighbours' houses in their costumes. When the door opens, they say "Trick or treat" and people usually give them sweets or ..... . When people don't give them a treat, the children play a trick. They sometimes write on windows with soap or throw an egg at the front door of the house.

LIVEWORKSHEETS