Exercise 2 (Maze practice) -complete the text with the correct word.

In today's world, technology has made it easier to learn about different cultures. Many people enjoy 1(exploring /explore / to explore) cultural traditions online. For example, if someone wants 2(learning / learn / to learn) about festivals in other countries, they can find videos and articles easily.

Some people still prefer 3(to travel / traveling / travel) to experience customs firsthand. Traveling helps people understand and appreciate cultural differences, and many find it fascinating 4(meeting/ meet/ to meet) people from diverse backgrounds.

However, even if technology 5(makes /make/ making) cultural information more accessible, it can't replace the value of personal experience. Those who plan 6(to visit/ visiting/ visit) new countries often prepare by learning a few key phrases in the local language or researching customs they should follow.

People who intend 7(living/ to live / live) abroad usually study the culture more deeply. They may even begin 8(adapting/ adapt/ to adapt) to new customs before they arrive, making the transition smoother.
