Subject: Mike's birthday

Dear Jack,

Your brother's birthday is this Saturday. Let's have a party for him that evening. According to the weather forecast, it might rain that day. We might as well host it in our apartment. We can invite your parents and your sisters.

Please get some things for the party this afternoon. You can buy them on your way home from work. Get a dozen paper hats at Joe's Party Shop. We can each wear one. Please also stop at Fresh Bakery and get a cake and some cookies.

Don't buy a present for your brother. I already have a marvelous one for him. It's a cell phone. I got it at Great Department Store last week.

See you this Saturday,

Tracy
