Watch this video :-

Then, complete the missing words below.

There was a boy named (1) ..... He did not like living in a (2) ..... family. For him, living in a big family was a huge (3) ..... He was never alone and felt (4) ..... by everyone. One day, his family had to attend a (5) ..... in a nearby town. He was not so interested. He refused to go by saying that he had a lot of (6) ..... to complete besides of having a (7) .....so he won't be able to join them no matter how it cost. At first, his (8) ..... didn't want to leave him alone at home but he insisted. He finally (9) ..... the day at home and wanted to (10) ..... his friends to his house but none was available. An hour later, his best friend, (11)..... stopped by. They decided to have a pizza and they both (12) ..... on bicycle and began (13)..... until they met in an accident. He fainted and on waking up he found himself at the (14) ..... with a fractured leg. Jake called his parents to inform about this. They rushed to the hospital to see him. Fortunately, the doctor let him go back to home. Upon arrival, his dad was so (15) ..... at him for lying but mum made him cool. Soon he began to see the difference in his family. His dad brought him (16) ....., books and (17)..... to keep him busy while mum cooked him all his favourite (17) ..... and gave him the medicine. Besides, his sister gave him (18)..... whenever he was in pain. His grandparents told their old stories whereas his cousins played games with him. To keep him updated, his (19)..... brought him the school work. He started to feel happy as being a part of the family. He couldn't (20)..... how his life would be without them. Everyone took care of each other and he began to realize how grateful he was. He apologized everyone for lying and since that he didn't complain anymore for living in a big family.

LIVEWORKSHEETS